

Plants have been on earth for millions of years and there are hundreds of thousands of different kinds of plants. They are all considered part of the plant kingdom. Almost all living things depend on plants in order to survive.

Plants are of many types – tiny grasses, tall trees, prickly plants, floating plants, etc. A huge world of fascinating plants surround us.

Identify the plants with the clues given below and solve the crossword puzzle.

Down

3. A tree whose fruits give us oil and its branch is offered as a symbol of peace.
4. A sour fruit whose Arabic name means the Indian date.
5. The tallest and thickest kind of grass.
6. Hard knots of this tree are used to make tobacco pipes.
7. A valuable fragrant wood, which is protected by the law in India.

Across

1. A plant that can store water in its stem.
2. A spice that is also called black gold.
3. A poisonous tree from which rat poison is made.